EDITION 02

Embracing excellence; a reflection from the Principal

Dear Students, Parents, and Staff,

I am thrilled to share with you the latest edition of our school newsletter 'LA CHRONIQUE', highlighting the achievements and events of the past quarter. Our school community has been buzzing with activity, and I am so proud of the hard work, dedication, and enthusiasm displayed by our students and staff. Also, I would like to appreciate Mrs. Najuma, the editor, LA CHRONIQUE and the senior academic coordinator for her untiring efforts.

As we continue to strive for excellence in academics, arts, and sports, I encourage each of you to embrace the opportunities and challenges that come your way. Remember, learning is a lifelong journey, and every experience shapes us into better individuals. I would like to extend my gratitude to our teachers, staff, and parents for their unwavering support and collaboration. Together, we create a nurturing environment that fosters growth, creativity, and success.

In this newsletter, you will find stories of student achievements, upcoming events, and important updates. I hope you enjoy reading about the amazing things happening in our school community.

Thank you for your continued support.
